

Privacy and Cookie Policy for Twill Platform

This website is provided and controlled by Twill, a brand of Damco International B.V. ("Twill").

1. Scope

Twill recognizes and respects the importance of the privacy of our users of Twill Platform. This policy accounts for the personal data and cookies etc. used via Twill Platform. If you do not agree with the terms herein, please do not use Twill Platform and delete the cookies placed by the website.

2. Personal data

On Twill Platform, we may collect information about name, postal address, email address, other contact information, age, interests, gender, IP addresses and other personal data. Twill Platform is intended for Twill's customers and its representatives to use services provided via Twill Platform (and not for general audience, hence we do not knowingly collect personal data about any person under the age of 18 years).

We process personal data for the following purposes:

- Provision of Twill services and products and to accommodate your requests and inquiries
- Provision of newsletters offered by Twill
- The purposes listed in the below cookie section

As a part of a global Maersk group, Twill may transfer personal data collected by us on an aggregated or individual level to various divisions, subsidiaries, joint ventures and affiliated companies of A.P. Møller – Mærsk A/S ("Maersk Group"), Damco International A/S or Twill around the world located inside or outside the European Economic Area for the purposes stated above, as well to data processors outside of Twill in India, China or other countries globally for storage and service purposes. Personal data will not be disclosed to anyone outside the Maersk Group and Twill without your consent unless permitted or required under applicable legislation.

We delete or anonymize your personal data when it is no longer needed for the purposes for which it was collected and subsequently processed.

If you have submitted personal data to us, e.g. when registering for a newsletter, you enjoy certain rights to access and rectify data, however, subject to certain legal limitations.

We have implemented appropriate organizational and technical security measures to protect your personal data. We store personal data on servers with limited access located in secured facilities, and our security measures are evaluated on an ongoing basis. The servers are protected by anti-virus software and firewalls, among other measures.

3. Cookies

Our websites use cookies. A cookie is a small text file, which is stored on your computer in order to recognize your computer at recurring visits. The cookie may transmit information via your browser with a purpose of authenticating or identifying the computer (via e.g. the IP address) or the user. Cookies may contain information such as registration data and user preferences. When a server receives a request from a computer which stores a cookie from the website, the server is able to use the information stored in the cookie in combination with the information stored on the server. A cookie cannot collect information from your computer and cannot carry any virus or other damaging files.

The following third parties store the following cookies on this website:

- Google Analytics (provided by Google Inc.) to enable us a) to perform statistical analyses of e.g. number of visitors, information on gender, age, location, interests and the like to learn about our visitors and b) to improve the website friendliness and usability, e.g. on the basis of website traffic measurements
- Addthis (provided by AddThis, Inc.) to enable the visitors of our website to use social media features, like sharing, sending or recommending pages to others
- Youtube (provided by YouTube LLC.) to store session preferences (e.g. language) and suggest other content based on your previous uses (only activated when you are logged in to Youtube when visiting our website and only when clicking the YouTube button)
- Facebook (provided by Facebook, Inc.) to identify users logged in to Facebook for the purpose of sharing content on Facebook (only when you are logged in to Facebook when visiting our website and only when clicking the Facebook button)
- LinkedIn (provided by LinkedIn Corp.) to enable the "follow" and "share" features of LinkedIn (only when you are logged in to LinkedIn when visiting our website and only when clicking the LinkedIn button).

You may delete cookies if you no longer wish to store them on your computer. However, please note that the high quality of our website may be reduced as a consequence thereof. Please refer to the help guide for your browser for further guidance.
